other evidentiary support for HCFA's claim; and

- (iii) The amount of court costs that would be assessed to HCFA.
- (3) Cost of collecting the claim. HCFA may compromise a claim if it determines that the cost of collecting the claim does not justify the enforced collection of the full amount. In this case, HCFA may adjust the amount it accepts as a compromise to allow an appropriate discount for the costs of collection it would have incurred but for the compromise.
- (d) Enforcement policy. HCFA may compromise statutory penalties, forfeitures, or debts established as an aid to enforcement or to compel compliance, if it determines that its enforcement policy, in terms of deterrence and securing compliance both present and future, is adequately served by acceptance of the compromise amount.

§ 401.615 Payment of compromise amount.

- (a) Time and manner of compromise. Payment by the debtor of the amount that HCFA has agreed to accept as a compromise in full settlement of a claim must be made within the time and in the manner prescribed by HCFA. Accordingly, HCFA will not settle a claim until the full payment of the compromise amount has been made.
- (b) Effect of failure to pay compromise amount. Failure of the debtor to make payment, as provided by the compromise agreement, reinstates the full amount of the claim, less any amounts paid prior to the default.
- (c) Prohibition against grace periods. HCFA will not agree to inclusion of a provision in an installment agreement that would permit grace periods for payments that are late under the terms of the agreement.

§ 401.617 Suspension of collection action.

- (a) General conditions. HCFA may temporarily suspend collection action on a claim if the following general conditions are met—
- (1) Amount of future recovery. HCFA determines that future collection action may result in a recovery of an amount sufficient to justify periodic

- review and action on the claim by HCFA during the period of suspension.
- (2) Statute of limitations. HCFA determines that—
- (i) The applicable statute of limitations has been tolled, waived or has started running anew; or
- (ii) Future collections may be made by HCFA through offset despite an applicable statute of limitations.
- (b) Basis for suspension. Bases on which HCFA may suspend collection action on a particular claim include the following—
 - (1) A debtor cannot be located; or
 - (2) A debtor-
- (i) Owns no substantial equity in property;
- (ii) Is unable to make payment on HCFA's claim or is unable to effect a compromise; and
- (iii) Has future prospects that justify retention of the claim.
- (c) Locating debtors. HCFA will make every reasonable effort to locate missing debtors sufficiently in advance of the bar of an applicable statute of limitations to permit timely filing of a lawsuit to recover the amount of the claim.
- (d) Effect of suspension on liquidation of security. HCFA will liquidate security, obtained in partial recovery of a claim, despite a decision under this section to suspend collection action against the debtor for the remainder of the claim.

§ 401.621 Termination of collection ac-

- (a) General factors. After considering the bases for a decision to terminate collection action under paragraph (b) of this section, HCFA may further consider factors such as—
- (1) The age and health of the debtor if the debtor is an individual;
- (2) Present and potential income of the debtor; and
- (3) Whether assets have been concealed or improperly transferred by the debtor.
- (b) Basis for termination of collection action. Bases on which HCFA may terminate collection action on a claim include the following—
- (1) Inability to collect a substantial amount of the claim. HCFA may terminate collection action if it determines that it is unable to collect, or to enforce collection, of a significant amount of the claim. In making this determination, HCFA will consider factors such as—

§401.623

- (i) Judicial remedies available;
- (ii) The debtor's future financial prospects; and
- (iii) Exemptions available to the debtor under State or Federal law.
- (2) Inability to locate debtor. In cases involving missing debtors, HCFA may terminate collection action if—
- (i) There is no security remaining to be liquidated:
- (ii) The applicable statute of limitations has run; or
- (iii) The prospects of collecting by offset, whether or not an applicable statute of limitations has run, are considered by HCFA to be too remote to justify retention of the claim.
- (3) Cost of collection exceeds recovery. HCFA may terminate collection action if it determines that the cost of further collection action will exceed the amount recoverable.
- (4) Legal insufficiency. HCFA may terminate collection action if it determines that the claim is legally without merit.
- (5) Evidence unavailable. HCFA may terminate collection action if—
- (i) Efforts to obtain voluntary payment are unsuccessful; and
- (ii) Evidence or witnesses necessary to prove the claim are unavailable.

§ 401.623 Joint and several liability.

- (a) Collection action. HCFA will liquidate claims as quickly as possible. In cases of joint and several liability among two or more debtors, HCFA will not allocate the burden of claims payment among the debtors. HCFA will proceed with collection action against one debtor even if other liable debtors have not paid their proportionate shares.
- (b) Compromise. Compromise with one debtor does not release a claim against remaining debtors. Furthermore, HCFA will not consider the amount of a compromise with one debtor to be a binding precedent concerning the amounts due from other debtors who are jointly and severally liable on the claim.

§ 401.625 Effect of HCFA claims collection decisions on appeals.

Any action taken under this subpart regarding the compromise of a claim, or suspension or termination of collection action on a claim, is not an initial determination for purposes of HCFA appeal procedures.
